

Steve St. Clair—Senate District F—Republican

Other:

Steve St. Clair is a conservative Alaskan. He has been married to his wife Abigail, from Shishmaref, for almost 24 years. Their two adult children, Stephan and Gabrielle, are both graduates of Wasilla High School and both are attending Matsu Community College while working full time. Steve retired from the military in 2010 as a Military Police First Sergeant and is a former president and CEO of Conservative Patriots Group. He has a master's degree in business and has actively been involved in Alaskan politics, from the precinct to state level, since he retired. Steve is one of the main authors of the United for Liberty Budget Plan, which was developed for Alaskans by Alaskans, without expectation of payment or compensation.

Statement:

The majority of Alaska's problems stem from our inability to decrease state government to a level we can afford. I have worked with United for Liberty in the development of our budget plan, which is a pathway to reasonable and sustainable reductions in Alaska's bloated government. Additionally, I developed a plan for paying for this budget plan over the next three years, without completely draining our savings. The plan I developed did not incorporate any new taxes or changes to the dividend. If elected, I will not vote for any new taxation on Alaskans or changes to the calculation of the dividend until government has been reduced to one we can afford.

Current Legislators have used accounting tricks and shell games to move money from one pot to another, in an attempt to make it appear as if the budget has been reduced. The truth of the matter is that a bill is a debt, regardless of which pot of money it came from. I have a Master's in Business Administration (MBA) and will do everything I can to identify these shell games and bring long needed transparency to Juneau. I will align myself with other known conservatives in the Senate and work to build a powerful team. This is not about one person – this is about taking control of Juneau before Juneau comes for what is left in your wallet and your Dividend. Inaction is still an action. Vote for Steve St. Clair.
